

ANDREW McBride

M30-350 Wellington St., W., Toronto, ON

647-210-9243

Andrew.JD.McBride@GMail.com

Certified Commercial Diver, possess Carpentry and Construction experience, with team oriented attitude, a strong work ethic and dedication to the completion of common goals. Seeking full time employment.

HIGHLIGHTS OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Flexible attitude with ability to relocate for employment purposes on short notice
- 3 years experience in the Carpentry/Construction industry
- Current WHMIS, and Confined Spaces Hazard Awareness certifications
- Professional experience in fast-paced construction and maintenance settings; comfortable working extended hours
- Ability to confidently problem solve with effective decision making skills
- Comfortable in extreme climates with changing environments, while remaining committed to safety of operations
- Ability to admit any personal errors made, and willing to correct them upon request without question
- Dedicated, and willing to learn
- Successfully completed Underwater Skills Program Certificate, recognized by Diver's Certification Board of Canada
- Standard First Aid Certification and Oxygen Administration
- Current Serving It Right Certification
- Experienced with Microsoft Office, Computer Applications and Internet Navigation

INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE

- Performed construction duties such as welding, installing pilings, and relevant maintenance using pneumatic, hydraulic and electric tools and equipment
- Performed Finish Carpentry in residential houses using saws, compressors and other tools to measure, cut and install trim
- Experienced with hoisting and rigging safety procedures and precautions
- Experienced with the use of numerous types of caulking material
- Assisted constructing expansions to residential houses
- Operated underwater video, recording and related equipment for scientific or exploratory purposes
- Visually inspected vessels, bouyage systems, pipelines, plant intakes and outfalls, effectively reporting and recording results
- Operated winches, derricks or cranes to manipulate cables and chains to raise sunken objects
- Refloat submerged objects using lifting bags
- Successfully communicated with team while completing underwater search and rescue, salvage, recovery and clean up operations

ANDREW MCBRIDE

PAGE 2

PROFESSIONAL WORK EXPERIENCE

Aqua-Bility Projects Ltd.

Commercial Diver, Kelowna, B.C. April 2014 - Present

Trim Carpenter

P M Carpentry, Bowmanville, Ontario. October 2011 – December 2013

EDUCATION

Underwater Skills Certification

Seneca College, King City, Ontario 2011

Additional Current Certification:

- Unrestricted Surface Supply Diver recognized by Certification Board of Canada
- Canadian Standards Association Hyperbaric Chamber Operator Certificate
- Restricted Radio Operators Certification (Marine)
- Construction Safety Association of Ontario (C.S.A.O.) Safety Rigging Certificate
- Chainsaw Operators Certificate
- Standard First Aid and O2 Administration training
- Marine Basic First Aid Certificate
- Pleasure Boat Operator Card

Culinary skills

George Brown College, Toronto, Ontario 2009

General Arts and Science

Fanshawe College, London, Ontario 2007

Ontario Secondary School Diploma

Ajax High School, Ajax, Ontario 2006

Professional References Available Upon Request